Dear DGCC Family,

Grace and peace to you this day.

After about three years of writing daily devotionals, I’m going to take a break this week, do some extra reading and discernment, and return next week with our daily “Words of Encouragement.”

In the meantime, there are many good devotionals for you to use in your daily walk. Here’s one I might suggest:

Blessings to you this week, and see you next Monday.

IHS,
